Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 21, to Saturday April 25, 1789.

Whitehall, April 25.

THURSDAY last being appointed by His Majesty's Proclamation to be observed as a Day of General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the signal Interposition of His good Providence, in removing from His Majesty the late Illness with which He had been afflicted, His Majesty was pleased, for the greater Solemnity of the Day, to go to the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, accompanied by the Queen, their Royal Highnesses the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Princess Royal, the Princess Augusta, the Princess Elizabeth, the Duke of Gloucester, and the Duke of Cumberland, and his Highness Prince William; and attended by both Houses of Parliament, the Great Officers of State, the Judges, and other public Officers, to return Thanks to God for His great Mercies and Blessings.

The Procession was begun at Eight o'Clock in the Morning by the House of Commons, in their Coaches, followed by their Speaker, in his State Coach. Next came the Masters in Chancery, the Judges, and after them the Peers, in the Order of Precedency, as they were marshalled by the Officers of Arms at Westminster, the youngest Baron going first, and the Lord Chancellor, in his State Coach, closing this Part of the Procession. Such of the Peers as were Knights wore the Collars of their respective Orders.

Afterwards came the Royal Family, in order of Precedency, with their Attendants, escorted by Parties of the Royal Regiment of Horse Guards.

Their Majesties set out from the Queen's Palace soon after Ten o'Clock, in a Coach drawn by Eight Cream-coloured Horses, (in which were also Two of the Ladies of Her Majesty's Bed-Chamber) followed by their Royal Highnesses the Princesses, and proceeded through the Gate at the Stable Yard, along Pall Mall, and through the Strand, amidst the loyal Acclamations of a prodigious Concourse of People.

The Streets were lined, as far as Temple Bar, by the Brigade of Foot Guards, the Grenadier Companies of which were posted in St. Paul's Church, and in the Church-yard, and patrolled by Parties of the Royal Regiment of Horse Guards. The Avenues into the Streets through which the Procession passed were guarded by the Queen's Light Dragoons. From Temple Bar to the Church the Streets were lined by the Artillery Company and the Militia of the City; the Peace-Officers attending both within and without the City to preserve Order.

At Temple Bar His Majesty was met by the Lord Mayor, in a Gown of Crimson Velvet.

The Sheriffs in their Scarlet Gowns, and a Deputation from the Aldermen and Common Council, being all on Horseback, when the Lord Mayor surrendered the City Sword to His Majesty, who having returned it to him, he carried it bare-headed before the King to St. Paul's.

His Majesty being come to St. Paul's, was met at the West Door by the Peers, the Bishop of London, the Dean of St. Paul's (Bishop of Lincoln) the Canons Residentiary, and the Kings and other Officers of Arms, the Band of Gentlemen Pensioners, and the Yeomen of the Guard attending.

The Sword of State was carried before His Majesty by the Marquis of Stafford into the Choir, where the King and Queen placed themselves under a Canopy of State, near the West End, opposite to the Altar.

The Peers had their Seats in the Area, as a House of Lords, and the Commons in the Stalls. The upper Galleries were allotted to the Ladies of Her Majesty's Bedchamber, the Maids of Honour, and such other Ladies of Distinction as attended on this Occasion. The Foreign Ministers were placed in the two lower Galleries, next to the Throne; and the Lord Mayor and Aldermen in the lower Galleries near the Altar.

The Prayers and Litany were read and chaunted by the Minor Canons. The Te Deum and Anthems composed for the Occasion were sung by the Choir, who were placed in the Organ Loft, and were joined in the Chorus, as also in the Psalms, by the Charity Children, in Number about Six Thousand, who were assembled there previous to Their Majesties Arrival. The Communion Service was read by the Dean and Residentiaries, and the Sermon preached by the Lord Bishop of London.

Divine Service being ended, Their Majesties returned with the same State to the Queen's Palace at about half an Hour after Three o'Clock. The Guns at the Tower and in the Park were fired three Times, first upon the King's setting out, secondly at the singing of Te Deum, and thirdly upon His Majesty's Return; after which the Brigade of Foot Guards fired a Feu de Joie in St. James's Park, being drawn up in the Front of the Queen's Palace.

The public Demonstrations of Joy and Loyalty by the Inhabitants of London and Westminster, on the Occasion of His Majesty's first Appearance in public since His happy Recovery, exceeded all Expression; and Yesterday Evening the Illuminations in all Parts of this Metropolis surpassed in Splendor and Magnificence all former Exhibitions.

Whitehall, April 25.

The following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Dioceſe of Carliſle, humbly intreat Permiſſion to expreſs the Share we feel in the Joy which your Majeſty's Recovery hath diffuſed throughout the Realm.

The Miniſters of a Church which hath long experienced your Majeſty's Attention to it's Welfare; the Teachers of a Religion, for which your Majeſty hath teſtified your Regard by ſomething more than public Profeſſions, by the ſurer Evidence of a pious and exemplary Life, ought not to be the laſt to congratulate your Majeſty and their Country upon an Event ſo important to the Happineſs of both.

In the Midſt of national Proſperity your People were ſuddenly caſt down by an alarming Interruption of your Majeſty's Health.

We truſt that the Remembrance of this affecting Viſitation, whilſt it cannot fail to endear your Majeſty's Virtues to the Hearts of your Subjects, will teach them to perceive their Dependency upon that Almighty Protection, without which, in Nations as well as Individuals, Confidence is Preſumption, and Strength vain.

We pray to God to continue to your Majeſty, and to this Church and Nation, that Mercy of which we have ſeen in your Royal Perſon ſo conſpicuous an Example.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Biſhops in Scotland, and of the Clergy of their Communion.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Proteſtant Biſhops in Scotland, and Clergy of their Communion, moſt humbly requeſt your Royal Permiſſion to mingle our hearty Congratulations with thoſe that are daily flowing from all Parts of your Majeſty's Dominions on the preſent joyful Occaſion.

Deeply ſenſible of the Mildneſs, Equity and Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Government, while we joined with our Fellow-Subjects in ſincerely lamenting the calamitous Situation of the Britiſh Empire, ſuffering in the Diſtreſs of your Royal Perſon, we did not fail moſt earneſtly to emplore that much deſired Relief, which could come only from the Father of Mercies, and the God of all Comfort. We are now happy to find, that the Prayers of an united People have met with a gracious Acceptance, and have obtained from Heaven that complete Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health, for which, with moſt grateful Hearts, we humbly adore the Goodneſs of the Almighty.

We cannot omit this Opportunity of acknowledging, with all becoming Thankfulneſs, thoſe endearing Proofs of your Majeſty's diſtinguiſhed Clemency and Condeſcencion, which have encouraged this humble Addreſs. And when we conſider how much it is the anxious Wiſh and Deſire of your Majeſty's Heart to contribute to the Eaſe and Happineſs of your People, we rely with Confidence on your paternal Goodneſs for a Participation in the Protection and Religious Liberty that are enjoyed by the reſt of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects. By theſe Means we ſhall be enabled to manifeſt, in an exemplary Manner, that Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family, which, we can truly ſay, is founded in a Senſe of Duty, and confirmed by the warmeſt Gratitude.

Theſe Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to the beſt of Princes we ſhall make it our conſtant Study to inculcate on the Minds of thoſe who adhere to our Miniſtry: And your Majeſty may be aſſured of their good Diſpoſitions to promote the public Peace and Proſperity, by yeilding an uniform and chearful Obedience to your Majeſty's Sacred Authority.

That the Great God, by whom Kings reign, may take your Majeſty under the peculiar Care of His watchful Providence, guard you from every Danger, and preſerve you long in Health and Happineſs as a Bleſſing to the Britiſh Nation, and a Comfort to your own Illuſtrious Houſe, is, and ever ſhall be, the ardent Prayer of us,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful and obedient Subjects,
The Proteſtant Biſhops in Scotland, and the Clergy of their Communion.

Signed for ourſelves, and in Behalf of the Clergy of our reſpective Dioceſes, by Aberdeen March 31, 1789.

[Tranſmitted by the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, Repreſentative in Parliament for the County of Edinburgh.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants, the Dean, the Sub-Dean, Prieſts, Organiſts and Compoſers, Gentlemen, Serjeant and Yeoman of your Chapels Royal, deeply impreſſed with a juſt and grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's Goodneſs towards us as our Royal Maſter, and animated by every Motive of Affection and Loyalty to you as our King and Governor, ſhould feel ourſelves inexcuſably deficient if, amidſt the univerſal Joy which pervades the Minds of your faithful People on the Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health, we were not to give Utterance to the Emotions of our Hearts on ſo happy an Occaſion.

We therefore humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with our moſt ſincere Congratulations upon an Event, by which we are made truly ſenſible of the Mercy of that Almighty Being, who hath lent a gracious Ear to the united Prayers of an anxious and afflicted Nation, and who hath thus wonderfully provided for its Proſperity by the extenſive Benefits which your Majeſty's Reſumption of your Government muſt naturally diffuſe, not only throughout this Iſland, but throughout all Europe.

May the ſame Almighty Being, in His infinite Wiſdom and Mercy, continue to watch over and protect your Royal Perſon and Family, and grant your Majeſty a long uninterrupted Courſe of Health and Happineſs.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of London, Dean of the Royal Chapels.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Loyaliſt Clergy, late of North America.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your dutiful Subjects, the loyaliſt Clergy, late of North America, gratefully acknowledge the Divine Goodneſs of Providence in the Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health. Impreſſed with a Senſe of former Sufferings, endured in conſequence of our Attachment to the Throne, and filled with the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude and Duty, we humbly approach your Preſence, and preſume to renew our Aſſurances of inviolable Regard to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The congratulatory Addreſs of the Synod of Glaſgow and Ayr.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glaſgow and Ayr, have moſt cordially joined in the ſincere Expreſſions of Gratitude that have been offered up to Almighty God by all Ranks of your People for the memorable Interpoſition of His Providence, by which your Majeſty hath been reſtored in perfect Health to the Exerciſe of your Royal Authority.

The univerſal Joy expreſſed upon this happy Occaſion by a great People, ſenſible of the Value of their ineſtimable Privileges, and zealous to preſerve them, muſt be regarded by your Majeſty as the ſtrongeſt Proof of their Attachment to your Royal Perſon, and of their firm Belief that it is your unalterable Determination to ſupport that free Conſtitution of Government to which Great Britain owes it's Eminence among the Nations.

In no Part of the Iſland, before the Period of the Revolution in 1688, was the Rod of Arbitrary Power more ſeverely felt than in this Diſtrict, and no where did the Spirit, which conferred upon your Anceſtors the Crown of theſe Realms, more powerfully operate. With Pleaſure we contemplate thoſe Privileges, Civil and Religious, which by Divine Providence have, under the Auguſt Family of Brunſwick, been ſecured to theſe Lands; and with unfeigned Sincerity we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that it ſhall be our Study to cultivate in the Minds of the People under our Care thoſe Principles which brought your Illuſtrious Houſe to the Throne, and upon a Regard to which, in the Exerciſe of your Authority, the Love of your People is founded.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt may long preſerve your Majeſty as a Bleſſing to your People, and may afterwards beſtow upon you a more valuable Crown than that which you at preſent wear, is our fervent Prayer.

Signed at Glaſgow, the 15th Day of April, 1789, in our Name and by our Appointment,

John Monteath, jun. Moderator.

[Delivered by Ilay Campbell, Eſq; His Majeſty's Advocate for Scotland, and Repreſentative in Parliament for the Burgh of Glaſgow.]

We are happy in expreſſing, upon this joyful Event, our unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, and to your Family; and conſcious as we are of the ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under your auſpicious and equitable Government, we moſt devoutly pray for the Continuance of your Health, that your Majeſty may long reign over a free, grateful and affectionate People.

It will be our conſtant and moſt ardent Prayer, that your Majeſty's Life may be long preſerved in Health, Peace and Proſperity; and that the unceaſing Regard ever ſhewn by your Majeſty to the Religion, Laws and Liberties of theſe Realms may be at all Times gratefully repaid by the ſteady Loyalty and inviolable Attachment of a zealous and affectionate People.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Hereford, deeply impreſſed with the Goodneſs of God in the happy Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health, and truly ſenſible of the Comforts we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, approach Heaven with Gratitude and Thankſgiving, and your Majeſty with ſincere and joyful Congratulations flowing from Hearts lately overwhelmed with Anxiety and Concern.

The tender Affection and Attention of our moſt Gracious Queen to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, during the trying Moments of Her late Affliction, have been feelingly obſerved by your People, and would, if poſſible, increaſe their Duty, Love and Reſpect for Her Majeſty's Perſon.

Animated with humble Hopes of long, very long, enjoying the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's juſt and equitable Government, we preſent your Majeſty moſt ſincerely with all the Duty, Faith and

Allegiance

Allegiance which the moſt loyal Subjects can offer, or the beſt of Kings receive.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Heritors, Juſtices of Peace and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Wigtown.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AMIDST the Effuſions of Joy that flow from the Hearts of all your Majeſty's Subjects at the Re eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health, we, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Heritors, Juſtices of Peace and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Wigtown, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, and offer our ſincere Congratulations on the happy Event.

Ever ſenſible of the Bleſſings we derive from your Majeſty's wiſe and juſt Government, we pray the Diſpoſer of all Things to grant long Continuance of your Majeſty's Health, ſo propitious to the Welfare and Happineſs of a free and loyal People.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Preſident, Vice Preſidents and Governors of the Incorporated Marine Society of London, in General Court aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, and to add our Congratulations to the joyful Effuſions of Gratitude to Divine Providence, which have been ſo univerſally expreſſed by the Reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, on the happy Event of your Majeſty's Recovery, and the Reſtoration of your Regal Functions.

Animated by your Majeſty's early Approbation and bountiful Patronage, we have, we truſt, with unremitted Zeal and Fidelity, endeavoured to carry into Execution the Ends for which we have been incorporated, by reſcuing from Want, Miſery and Vice the loweſt and moſt wretched of your Majeſty's Subjects, and happily rendering them the Inſtruments of National Commerce, and the Bulwark of this Maritime Kingdom; and having hitherto happily ſucceeded, by the Aſſiſtance of Divine Providence, and the generous Contributions of our Fellow Subjects, we have the fulleſt Confidence, that the ſame Providence, whoſe Interpoſition is ſo manifeſt in your Majeſty's Recovery, will, under your Majeſty's Auſpices, give ſtill fuller Effect to our zealous Endeavours for the Public Service.

Whilſt we reflect with Thankfulneſs on this ſignal Inſtance of Divine Favour, we recollect with Satisfaction that even the Malady which ſo lately afflicted your Majeſty, and the Nation, has not been without it's Advantages; ſince it has awakened your Subjects to a more lively Senſe of the Bleſſings that depend on your Majeſty's invaluable Life and Health, and at the ſame Time has more fully diſcovered to your Majeſty the Extent and the Ardor of your Peoples Affection.

That your Majeſty may long enjoy Health and perfect Happineſs, and that your Reign may ſecure the Proſperity of a loyal and grateful People, is and will continue to be our moſt fervent Prayer.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE, the Vice-Preſidents and Governors of St. George's Hoſpital, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, and to teſtify our unfeigned Joy on the happy Event of your Majeſty's Recovery, which the Mildneſs and Beneficence of your Majeſty's Reign had rendered intereſting even to the leaſt of your Subjects.

Aſſiſted as this Hoſpital has been by your Majeſty's particular Patronage and Favor, it would ill become the Governors to be ſilent, who have thus been enabled to provide for the Health and Comfort of many of your Majeſty's Subjects; and while they expreſs the Benefits which they have witneſſed of that Goodneſs, they convey to your Majeſty the Gratitude of Thouſands.

That your Majeſty may long live happy, the Patron of every benevolent Inſtitution, and the Father of your People, is our earneſt Prayer.

The Joy ariſing from ſo auſpicious an Event has diffuſed itſelf through all Ranks of your People, and it imparts particular Satisfaction to us, who acknowledge with Gratitude that Divine Interpoſition by which your Majeſty is reſtored to the Exerciſe of your Royal Authority.

That Heaven may continue the Bleſſing it has vouchſafed to grant, attended with every domeſtic Comfort; and that you may long reign over a happy and free People, is our moſt ſincere and ardent Prayer.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters of the Preſbytery of Inverneſs, beg Leave, with the greateſt Humility, to approach your Majeſty's Throne to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Recovery from the late Indiſpoſition with which your Majeſty was afflicted.

Fully ſenſible of the Mildneſs of your Majeſty's Government, of the Privileges which the Church of Scotland has enjoyed ſince your Illuſtrious Houſe came to the Throne of theſe Realms; and obſerving, with the greateſt Pleaſure, your Ma-Majeſty's virtuous and religious Example; we were moſt deeply affected on Account of the Calamity with which your Majeſty was viſited; and hence we felt the ſincereſt Joy at the merciful Interpoſition of the Almighty in reſtoring your Majeſty to Health, and to the Exerciſe of the Royal Authority.

Our ardent Prayers to the Moſt High are, that your Majeſty's Health and Life may long be preſerved as a Bleſſing to your Family and Kingdoms, and as a Protection to our Church; and that your Majeſty may at Length receive a Crown of Glory.

Signed in Name, Preſence and by Appointment of the Miniſters of the Preſbytery of Inverneſs, this 7th Day of April, 1789, by

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Shafteſbury, beg Leave to offer you our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Recovery from your late dangerous Indiſpoſition.

Senſible as we are that our Rights and Liberties can never be more ſecure than under your Majeſty's Adminiſtration, our Alarm on the late Suſpenſion of your Government can be equalled only by our Joy at your re-aſſuming it. For that auſpicious Event we return our moſt unfeigned Thanks to the Almighty; and furthermore pray, that under His gracious Protection your Majeſty's Reign over us may continue increaſing in Felicity and Honour to a Period far remote.

If there can be yet an Addition to the univerſal Joy attending the Re-eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health, it ariſes from the Contemplation of that conjugal Piety and unremitting Affection ſo conſpicuous in your amiable Conſort, which, by ſecuring the domeſtic Happineſs of your Majeſty, have enthroned Her in the Hearts of your Majeſty's Subjects.

[Delivered by Hans Wintrop Mortimer, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, and of the Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Congleton, in the County of Cheſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, impreſſed with the higheſt Senſe of your Majeſty's Goodneſs, and of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, beg Leave to expreſs the anxious Concern for your Preſervation which your late Indiſpoſition awaked in the Minds of your faithful Subjects.

While we were alarmed with Apprehenſions for your Majeſty's Safety, our Prayers were fervent to the Almighty to avert the inpending Calamity, our Thankſgivings are not leſs ſincere for the happy Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health.

May you long continue to reign in the Hearts of your People; and may they, conſcious of the many Advantages theſe Kingdoms enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and juſt Governmunt, long continue united in their conſtant and ardent Wiſhes for your Majeſty's Preſervation, and every other Bleſſing this Life can beſtow on your Majeſty, your Royal Conſort and Family. In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto ſubſcribed ſubſcibed our Names, at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, the 7th Day of April, 1789.

[Delivered by Richard Wilbraham Bootle, Eſq; High Steward of that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Midhurſt in the County of Suſſex, as alſo of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders reſident in the Vicinity thereof, aſſembled in the Town-Hall of Midhurſt aforeſaid, on Tueſday the 14th Day of April, 1789.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Midhurſt, together with the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and other your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects reſiding in the Vicinity thereof, convened in the Town-Hall of Midhurſt aforeſaid, do, with all Humility, beg Leave to tender to your Majeſty our unfeigned Congratulations on your happy Recovery from the late ſevere Indiſpoſition wherewith it pleaſed the Almighty to afflict you.

We are truly and ſincerely thankful to the wiſe Diſpoſer of all Events, that it hath pleaſed Him in much Mercy to regard the earneſt Supplications of your faithful People, and that He hath been graciouſly pleaſed, after ſorely afflicting us, to fill our Hearts with Gratitude, to turn our Prayers into Praiſes, and our Sorrow into Joy.

The many and great Benefits we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, and with which our Minds are deeply impreſſed, cannot but make us to the laſt Degree ſolicitous for your Safety, upon which, under Heaven, theſe Bleſſings peculiarly depend.

Your Majeſty's happy Reſtoration to Health, and the perſonal Exerciſe of the Royal Authority, affords us the pleaſing Proſpect under Providence of a long Continuance of theſe invaluable Bleſſings. May the Almighty pour down upon your Majeſty the choiceſt of His Mercies, and, after a long, very long and proſperous Reign here upon Earth, may you late exchange your temporal for a far more glorious and eternal Kingdom in the Heavens.

[Delivered by Sir Herbert Mackworth, Bart.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

SIRE!

WE, the Debtors confined in the Caſtle Goal of Oxford, moſt humbly preſume to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of the trueſt Loyalty and Affection.

With the moſt heartfelt Sincerity we offer up our grateful Thanks to the Supreme Diſpoſer of all human Events, for His late moſt ſignal Mercies, in reſtoring to us the Father of His People, the Protector and Support of His loyal and affectionate Subjects; and we moſt heartily pray for the Continuance of the Health your Majeſty at preſent enjoys, ſo eſſentially neceſſary to the Happineſs and Welfare of your Kingdoms.

We alſo moſt humbly beg Leave to remind your Majeſty, at this Time of univerſal National Joy, that we have lingered for many Months abſent from our Wives and Families, and entirely deprived of all Poſſibility of affording them the moſt trifling Support. During the Period of your Majeſty's Illneſs, our own private Sorrows were ſwallowed up in the common Anxiety for your Majeſty's Recovery, and our Calamities have ſince been forgotten, and have given Way to a Participation of the general Joy.

Should your Majeſty look down with an Eye of Compaſſion on your unhappy Petitioners, but thirteen in Number, and confined for very trifling Debts which we nevertheleſs are unable to diſcharge, your Majeſty will, by that Means, reſtore to their drooping Families their Parents and their Brothers; will brighten the Faces of the Wretched with Joy, and will afford to your Royal and benevolent Mind that inward Satisfaction of doing Good, ſo often experienced by your Majeſty, the ſure and laſting Reward of Benevolence and Virtue!

That ſuch may be the Reſult of your Royal Conſideration of our manifold Misfortunes and Calamities, is the moſt earneſt Wiſh not only of your Majeſty's humble Petitioners, but alſo of Thouſands of their ſympathizing Fellow Subjects, who ſee with Sorrow their unhappy Fellow Creatures deprived of the Means not only of paying their Debts, but of procuring themſelves the Means of Subſiſtence.

Finally, we humbly entreat your Majeſty to forgive our Preſumption in thus preſuming to approach your Throne, aſſuring your Majeſty at the ſame Time that this Liberty had never been taken, had not Joy for your Majeſty's happy Recovery been infinitely greater than our Anxiety for our own calamitous Situation.
